

Thread and Yarn Suppliers

One of the many questions I am asked is where I get my thread and yarns. This is a list of suppliers of threads and yarns that I have enjoyed working with on my many projects.

21st Century Yarns	www.21stcenturyyarns.com	21st Century Yarns specialise in unique hand-dyed Yarns, Threads, Fabrics and Designs for all creative Textile Artists.	Over the years I've worked with a number of threads from 21 st Century Yarns and love their colour range.
Jo Firth Lace Making	www.jofirthlacemaking.co.uk	Lace making and needlework supplies	Has a good selection of threads.
John Arbon Textiles	www.jarbon.com	John Arbon Textiles is a small family-run business, in North Devon producing a wide range of luxury socks in the UK. Sister company, Fibre Harvest, uses traditional worsted machinery to process & spin fine quality British yarns ... one of only a handful of small scale Worsted Mills still operating in the UK.	I've just started to working with yarns from this mill and couldn't be happier. Their colours are lovely.
Roseground	Lizbeth Thread	Roseground was founded in 1999 to offer a comprehensive service to lacemakers and tatters based on a thorough	I find their Lizbeth thread a joy to work with

Stef Francis	www.stef-francis.co.uk	Stef Francis is a small family run business with over 20 years of experience in producing hand dyed yarn, threads, fibres, and fabrics for our customers all over the world.	I have never been disappointed with their yarns. The colour ways for their variegated threads are delicious.
Yarn Yarn	www.yarnyarn.co.uk	"... an inspirational and ethical online yarn shop based in the UK selling eco-friendly and recycled yarns handmade by women's co-operatives and small communities in rural India."	Used their yarns and ribbons in a number of projects.
Love Crafts	www.lovecrafts.com/en-gb	Describes itself as the shop for craft materials, yarn and free patterns. Knitting, crochet, embroidery, sewing and tons of inspiration for your next project. Feel the joy of making.	Love crafts used to specialise in knitting wools only but has taken over some of Sew & Sews threads.
